Écrit par merchid.berger@finances.gouv.fr (Merchid BERGER)
Vendredi, 27 Juillet 2012 00:00 -

A challenge, an opportunity, a group of friends, a gateway to Europe, NECSTouR has been defined in many ways but… What is all this sustainable and competitive tourism about? Who are the members of NECSTouR? How do these members get in contact? Which added value do they receive from being part of this network? How do we influence the EU institutions?

If you want to find out just click on the image below and you will answer all these questions and discover that this is not only about working but cooperating, exchanging, communicating…

PLEASE CLICK ON THE FRAME TO SEE THE VIDEO

The video was recorded during the last general assembly held in Brussels on the 9th of May 2012. Some of our members had the opportunity to explain by themselves what is the sustainable and comeptitive tourism and which benefits they are getting from being member of such a network.

Please do not hesitate to circulate it among your contacts!

Consultez la source sur Veille info tourisme: Présentation vidéo de Necstour le réseau des régions européennes pour le tourisme durable et compétitif