

U.S. Citizen International Travel down Nearly Two Percent in February 2013

U.S. citizen outbound totaled 4.0 million travelers for the month
Travel was down nearly one percent year-to-date

February 2013/2012 Comparisons

U.S. travel to overseas markets(1) totaled 1.82 million, down three percent in February.
Regional results were :

- Europe, 481,000 travelers, down three percent
- Caribbean, 512,000 travelers, down five percent
- Asia, 298,000 travelers, down six percent
- Central America, 203,000 travelers, flat
- South America, 139,000 travelers, flat
- Middle East, 109,000 travelers, up four percent
- Oceania, 57,000 travelers, up six percent
- Africa, 23,000 travelers, up four percent

Overseas travel was down one percent year-to-date.

U.S. travel to North American markets totaled 2.18 million, down one percent from February 2012.

- Mexico, 1.7 million travelers, flat; however, air travel (530,000) was up one percent
 - Canada, 526,000 travelers, down two percent; air travel (189,000) also down two percent
- Travel to Canada and Mexico was flat year-to-date.

en savoir plus

Consultez la source sur Veille info tourisme: Etats-Unis le nombre de touristes américains voyageant à l'étranger en baisse de 2 en février 2013