

Russians Spend The Most In Greece During First Half Of 2013

Écrit par merchid.berger@finances.gouv.fr (Merchid BERGER)

Lundi, 26 Août 2013 00:00 -

Russian tourists accounted for the biggest rise in Greek tourism revenue during the first six months of the year, according to recent data released by the Bank of Greece.

Tourism revenue in Greece increased 17.8 percent on 2012 to 3.3 billion euros in the first half of this year.

The Russians were reported to have spent some 341 million euros, up 42 percent on the same period in 2012.

In June alone, there was a 20.6 percent year-on-year increase overall in tourism revenues that reached 1.6 billion euros.

Consultez la source sur Veille info tourisme: Russians Spend The Most In Greece During First Half Of 2013