Écrit par sylvie.duval@finances.gouv.fr (Sylvie Duval)
Mercredi, 13 Juin 2012 00:00 -

Representatives from the tourism industry, campaigning groups and academia gathered in central London recently for a special meeting organised by Tourism Concern and the Institute for Human Rights and Business (IHRB).
The meeting aimed to explore the major human rights challenges facing the tourism sector and emerging opportunities to more effectively address these.
Speakers included representatives from the UN Working Group on Business and Human Rights, Water Aid, International Business Leaders Forum, Minority Rights Group, IUF (International Union of Food, Agricultural, Hotel, Restaurant, Catering, Tobacco and Allied Workers' Associations), the ILO (International Labour Organisation), as well as Tribes Travel, ABTA, GSTC and Kuoni.

en savoir plus

Consultez la source sur Veille info tourisme: Mettre les droits de lhomme au centre du tourisme Tourism Concern puts human rights and tourism centre stage