Taiwan Inbound Tourism Growths. Source is the Mainland

The inbound tourism industry of Taiwan has been growing over the past few years. Amidst this success, the country's tourism authorities are still enhancing their promotional efforts to make sure that number of tourists will continuously to growth.
Their latest efforts were regarding a promotion of the fourth Straits Forum located in the port city of Xiamen somewhere in southeast China's Fuijan province. There was food, postcards of sceneries and some traditional folk dancing as well.
Taiwan's 3 famous island's namely Penghu, Kinmen and Matzu along with the Tainan city exhibited their scenic spots, famous local products and credentials on investments. The forum was successful as 400 people willingly participated. A fair was held especially for Taiwanese products like food and handicrafts.
The deputy director of Tainan city's tourism bureau, Lin Kuo-Hua, who is also the organizer of the fair declared that Tainan is one of the places in the world with the most beautiful landscapes. Top of the line eating experience is also available to all tourists. The country's entrenched culture can easily be celebrated. At the next stage promote medical tourism will be promoted.
